10. a. Action Reported by Field

1. There were no changes in the broadcast schedule of the clandestine radio during April.

2. The programs during April continued to stress the food offer made to the Albanian people by President Eisenhower in March and its rejection by the Albanian Government. Other items included in the programs were the ratification of the Paris agreement; the Soviet offer to discuss an Austrian treaty, which was attributed to the determined stand of the Western Powers and the united pressure of the Austrian people; the purges of Kang and Shin in China and of Farka and Nagy in Hungary; the visit to Formosa of Admiral Radford and Under Secretary of State Robertson; the stand against Communist imperialism taken at the Afro-Asian Conferences; and comment on internal Albanian developments.

3. The propaganda staff in Athens moved into a new safe house in April. The new quarters are more convenient and more secure than those formerly occupied.
